Democratic candidate is W. H.
Toler: There is no cocasion for crimination and recrimination in this little campaign.
Both men are very well known to the people of their ward, and can be voted for on their merits. The Third Ward, with a full vote, is strongly Republicans, and there ought to be un question of Mr. Johnson's election. The only circumstance that might interfere with this result would be a mere matter of neglect on the part of the electors to attend the polls. We trust that they will not go to aleep on their post in idle security. Not even the fag end of a Councilmanic term should be allowed to go by default.
